Accolades

"Ashley captured my attention speaking at a recent event. I appreciated her authenticity and realism, not to mention her humor, reminding me it ok to laugh with myself."

-Tannis (Abbotsford, Canada)

"I had a wonderful time and I really enjoyed Ashley's speech and a learned a lot from it. I had always been nervous about repurposing content thinking I'm cheating my audience and being lazy by doing that, but her speech gave me a different perspective on it."
